- 1 In 29 years of publishing catalogs, this piece ranks in the top ten of all the items I have offered. 12
- Spectacular miniature watercolor on ivory of Frederick Douglass, the most prominent African American of the 19th century. Size 2½ x 2½. On the reverse is a small glass window enclosing his authentic autograph "Fredk Douglass 1883". Entire unit in pristine condition. 6,750.
- I bought this in the 1980's, and it has resided in my safe for the past 20-25 years, not seen by anyone. 45,000
- 2 Superb 2" Battersea enamel pill box circa 1785-1805 "The Wish of an Englishman's Heart is to see - The Trade of America Open and Free." Black lettering, dark blue wreath, light blue base. Virtually mint. 2,750.
- 3 Brilliant multicolor 5 1/2 goblet in an opalescent milk glass. Portrait Lincoln with garlands of flowers. Reverse eagle, flag, shield. Made during the Civil War - I know of similar pieces in different forms depicting Grant and Sherman. 9,500.
- 4 Great quarter plate daguerreotype in fancy thermoplastic frame. Reverse of plate inscribed "Sluce (sic) Mining Near Auburn Cal". Eight men with picks, shovels, wheelbarrow, etc. work a very long raised double channel sluice. A half dozen buildings in the background at right rear. Basically excellent condition, a little light perimeter tarnish, few tiny mold spiders in trees at upper right, minor thin scratch on horizon at upper left. A great image! 22,000.
- 5 Wonderful intaglio glass seal of Benjamin Franklin, size 1 x 1 1/8, in 2 1/4 revolving silver mount for watch chain or chateleine. The seal itself is a brilliant deep teal green. Beneath the bust are tiny letters "PLUS ULTRA" (The Best, The Finest). French, circa 1780-1820. 3,500.
- 6 Rare 2 ½ child's mug in canary yellow, eagle, MUNROE. Excellent condition. 9,950.
- 7 Very rare large 12 x 16 photo Wilbur Wright with six other men, preparing his plane at Camp d'Auvours, France, August 1908. Wright became the most celebrated man in Europe as he broke record after record before the immense crowds which included many royalty and heads of state. 1,950.
- Orville Wright lived till 1948, but Wilbur died of typhoid fever in 1912. His signature is rare. While signed photos do appear on the market, most are postcard size. This large image is spectacular, and the huge 3 ½" signature is bold and bright. Photo in excellent condition, with one light scratch below the lower wing. In expensive museum frame 16 x 21. Exhibited at "Orville and Wilbur - The Wright Brothers Legacy", Dayton Art Institute 2003 and Virginia Air & Space Center 2003-2004. 11,000.
- 8 Very rare card 3 ½ x 2 ½ S.R. Fondren-Auctioneer for the sale of Negroes - Richmond VA....Will give his undivided attention to sales of all Negroes entrusted to him, either public or private. Appearance is near mint, but there is mounting residue from an old album on the blank reverse. 2,750.
- 9 From a distance this looks like a chromolithograph, but its actually a unique watercolor for Russell & Co, Massillon Agricultural Works, Massillon Ohio. Size 20 x 30 (sight) in nice gilt lined walnut frame 27 x 39. Detailed scene of farmers using four different horse drawn implements in grain fields. Farmhouses and river in background. Minor toning, small edge tears, scattered tiny scuffs mostly in grassy foreground. Overall VF, a superb piece of 19th century advertising. 5,000.
- 10 One of the best posters I have even owned, a masterpiece of Soviet Cold War propaganda. Truman, Dewey, Churchill, DeGaulle and the other leaders of the free world sit at a conference table. They are interrupted by a giant Russian laborer pounding his fist on the table while his red flag proclaims "We Will Rule the World". Obviously designed during the 1948 election when the Russians didn't know who would be President, hence the inclusion of Dewey. 22 x 33, mint, on linen. 3,950.
- 11 Exceedingly rare broadside of the Georgia Ordinance of Secession, January 1861, printed on silk by the Constitutionalist Steam Press, Augusta. Near mint condition in nice gilt frame 17 x 23. Full text of the resolution and names of all delegates, including six who dissented. The only other example I have seen was printed on paper and sold at a southern auction a few years ago for $20,000. 18,000.
- Superb quarter plate daguerreotype of Franklin Pierce. Not taken from life, but actually a dag of the famous painting of him by Adna Tenney which hangs at the Pierce Homestead in Hillsborough NH. Crystal clear image in beautiful condition, a few tiny mold spiders in the background. Fine leather case. 6,750.
- 13 Historically significant Russian poster published in 1969. The stripes of an American flag have been reformed as bayonets pointed at a Negro worker holding the famous "I AM A MAN" placard from the 1968 Memphis Sanitation Workers strike (where Martin Luther King was assassinated). The Russian slogan reads "Racism-American Shame". 22 x 34, mint, on linen. 3,250.
- 14 Exceedingly rare jugate poster 20 x 26, Wilbur and Orville Wright - Worlds Greatest Aviators - Welcome to Dayton June 1909. Printed by Walker Litho, Dayton. Expensive museum frame. Small surface wrinkles, overall condition VF. Exhibited at 100th Anniversary of Powered Flight, Dayton Art Institute 2003. 8,750.
- 15 Unique 15 ½ American naval dirk, eagle pommel with ivory grip wrapped in gilt wire. Blade decorated with large 5" gilded riband engraved "Bainbridge and Ye Navy" Bainbridge in block letters, remainder in fancy script. Other side with liberty cap and elaborate floral engraving. Generally excellent but for chipping to ivory just below the eagle. No scabbard. William Bainbridge was one of the most celebrated of early naval officers, succeeding Isaac Hull as commander of the Constitution in the War of 1812. 6,250.
- 16 An exceptional piece of ephemera. 5" ticket for the raffle of Abraham Lincoln's original draft of the Emancipation Proclamation, held at the Army Relief Bazaar in aid of the Sanitary Commission, Albany, Feb. 1864. Ticket made out to the eminent historian Benson Lossing. The bazaar was managed by a seven man committee including William Cullen Bryant and noted abolitionist Gerrit Smith. One has to suspect chicanery in the fact that Smith won the lottery, but he generously donated the proclamation to the Sanitary Commission, and it was subsequently purchased by the New York State Library, where it resides today. 1,950.
- 17 Superb sixth plate daguerreotype of an unidentified Negro gentleman with white hair, wearing coat, vest and broad silk tie. Distinguished looking. 3,250.
- 18 Excessively rare (possibly unique) large 3 x 9 silk ribbon "Bell and the Belles - 1860 - Harvard". The Constitutional Union Party had most of their support in the south, but they captured 13% of the Massachusetts vote, multiples of their total in any other northern state. This was no doubt because the Vice Presidential candidate Edward Everett was the former president of Harvard University and he promoted the ticket in Massachusetts. This exceptional ribbon likely made for one of his appearances. Near mint. 4,000.
- 19 Always in demand 1860 Breckinridge - Lane jugate ferrotype, Hake 3005. Bright and bold with sharp contrast. Some tiny pinprick marks and fine scratches, overall VF, well above average. Reverse pin gone. Catalog photo got clipped at top - oops! Very reasonably priced at 2,250.
- 20 Desirable Harrison log cabin and cider barrel, brooch, multicolor reverse painted on glass, original pin reverse. Thin horizontal crack in glass, but overall appearance is superb. 950.
- 21 This is superb. 3" brass tool for button holes, in form of fully three dimensional presentation grade tomahawk. Fancy engraved blade with heart cutout. 750.
- 22 33 mm brass William Pitt "Libertatis Vindex" (Avenger of Liberty). Reverse clasped hands and liberty cap representing unity of America and Britain. Betts 521. Issued for Repeal of Stamp Act 1766. VF. 700.
- 23 Unique Civil War token, flag of US, Dix quote to shoot on the spot. Pair of identical counterstamps in rectangular boxes carefully placed above and below Dix name "C F ULRICH". Conrad F Ulrich was one of the finest gun engravers of the 19th century - his engraved Winchesters have sold for up to a quarter million dollars. XF 350.
- 24 Tiny 10 mm uniface brass token on pinback hanger "Millions for Freedom - Not one cent for Slavery - 1863" XF 150.
- 25 Civil War token, pic of fire helmet "Made to order - Peter Stumps - Chicago" XF 125.

Why Does "Billy" Sunday Favor Suffrage for Men AND WOMEN?

Mr. Sunday says: "I stood for Woman Suffrage when it was not as popular as it is today."
On the question of women, Mr. Sunday says:
"We had a war one time on account of taxation without representation; you all know about that."
On February 18, 1915, in the Billy Sunday Tabernacle in Philadelphia, speaking for Woman Suffrage, Mr. Sunday said:
"I am in favor of anything the Devil is against, and I am against anything that the Devil is in favor of."
"It makes me sick to see some weak-eyed, drunken, whitey-soaked degenerate upstaging a ballot and keeping down women away."
"The Nation that refuses to grant the requests and calls of women to protect their homes from the forces that are eating out their vitals is doomed, whether it is this or any other Nation."

Give your support to better things in this country by voting for Woman Suffrage at the next election in New York State on November 6, 1917.

EXTRA.
 10 a. m. Direct from Washington by long distance telephone. Terrible fighting all day yesterday at Santiago. The Americans captured all of Spanish outer works. General Shafter cables 400 Americans killed and wounded: Spanish loss over 1000.

11 a. m. Fighting renewed at day-break. City is being vacated and on fire.

BIG BATTLE RAGING
 New York World's Special received at 11 p. m. last night. Every driven from entrenchments after five hours of fighting and today the city may be ours.

The fighting continued until dark, our forces carried the outer works, and have occupied them this evening.

The battle will probably be resumed at daylight.

At 6 o'clock this afternoon fighting began, the Spanish began to leave their entrenchments and retreat into city. Morro Castle and the other forts are reduced to a mass of ruins. The Vespers used her dynamite guns with good effect. The outer line of entrenchments are now occupied by our troops, less than 1/2 of a mile separates them from Santiago. The Chinese are fighting like heroes in front ranks.

IMPORTANT EXTRA
 The Great Whaleback will make an extra trip to Milwaukee tonight. Leaves Rush St. Bridge at 10 p. m., arrives in Milwaukee at 3 a. m. Returns to Chicago and makes the Sunday trip, leaving at 10 a. m.
